

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Fragrant lilies, palms and Cathedral candles banked the altar and chancel of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Harrisonburg last evening at 8:30 o'clock for the marriage of Miss Mary Coffman, daughter of Mrs. Edith Dutton, of Harrisonburg, and the late Samuel Coffman, of Travis Harris Epps, of Richmond and Blackstone. An ascension lilies and white blossoms were massed in the windows and outlined the entrance of the church, and tall standards of lilies marked the pews reserved for the family. The wedding was one of the most brilliant events of the early spring season, and a distinguished company of guests witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. H. M. Carter, D. D., of Harrisonburg. The bride, Miss Mary Coffman, was dressed in a gown of white satin and chiffon, and wore a crown of white lilies and a shower bouquet of white violets and lilies of the valley. William L. Dutton gave the bride away. Miss Juliet Coffman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a white lace gown with a circle of yellow satin and chiffon, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The matron of honor, Mrs. M. R. Sutherland, of Richmond, and Elizabeth M. G. Wallace, of Blackstone, were gowning alike in green chiffon finished with tulle of lace, and their bouquets were Gillianey roses. Virginia Brooks, of Staunton, a little cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer, and wore a white frock with a sash of green chiffon. Allan Epps, of Blackstone, was the groom's best man, and the ushers were F. C. Jones, of Richmond, Lester B. Dutton, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Douglas L. Tuggle, of Blackstone; Fletcher B. Epps, of Cottoway; and a number of Richmond, and Harris Fitzgerald, of Blackstone.

Following the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother for the bridal party, and a few intimates of the bride and groom. The drawing-room and library were decorated in pink flowers and palms, and a color scheme of green and white was carried out in the dining-room, which was laid out with a centerpiece of lilies and Brill roses. Mrs. Coffman, who received with her mother, the groom's mother, a handsome gown of black lace trimmed in cut jet. Mr. and Mrs. Epps left later in the evening for a wedding trip that will include a tour of the Northern cities and Canada. After a week's visit to the bride's home at Grove Avenue, in this city, some of the guests from a distance attending the wedding last night were Mrs. M. R. Sutherland, of Richmond; Mrs. Mary Wasschoff, of Buena Vista; Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Sutherland, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brock, of Staunton; Mrs. N. M. Epps, Miss Sallie Epps, of Blackstone; Miss Geraldine Wallace, of Blackstone; Mrs. M. G. Wallace, of Blackstone; and Mrs. H. T. Christian, of Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Cowherd, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jones, of Roanoke, and many others.

The bride is a granddaughter on her maternal side of Magdalen McDowell, who was the granddaughter of Colonel Samuel McDowell, of Revolutionary fame. She married Major John Coffman, C. S. A., who lost his life in the battle of the Wilderness. Mrs. Epps is also descended from the Riddle, Vanables, Moores and Prestons, of Virginia, on her maternal side. She is related to the Dutch Van Pelt family, as well as the French and Thomas families of Maryland. She is a niece of Mrs. Henry T. Christian, of this city. Mr. Epps is a cousin of T. E. Jones, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Gordon Weyburn, whose marriage was an important event of last week, are now visiting the parents of the groom for several weeks in Atlanta, Ga. They will return to Virginia, where they will make their residence at the twenty-ninth Street, Newport News. Mrs. Weyburn was formerly Miss Gay Ola Austin, daughter of J. W. Austin, of Williamsburg, and has frequently visited relatives and friends in this city. The groom is a graduate of the University of Chicago, at one time made his home in this city.

The March bridge tournament at the Woman's Club will be held in the club parlors this evening at 8:15 o'clock with such high bridge players as usual rules concerning the registering of tables and gentlemen partners will be observed.

Fashionable society is looking forward with the greatest interest and enthusiasm to the first of a series of "dancantes" to be given by Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel. It will be a charming affair in every respect. Mrs. J. C. Montague, president of the chapter, and the committees of prominent society women working with her, have announced that the entertainment will be one of the most novel and unique events given for charity here in many months. There is to be a big silver cup for the best dancer in the contest, and ribbons for other awards. Mrs. W. W. White and Miss French Patton will give some exhibition dances as well.

Back from Washington. Mrs. Sidney J. Dunsley and Miss Margaret Atkinson Dudley have returned from Washington, where they spent the early part of the week. Mrs. Dudley attended a meeting of the United States Congress at the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, of which Mrs. Champ Clark is chairman, during her stay in Washington.

Of Interest in Richmond. Says the Baltimore News: "Mrs. William Lowndes gave her residence in Roland Park in honor of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Wirt Randall, of Annapolis, who will arrive in Elliott Hall, Baltimore, on Friday, March 20, at 10 o'clock. She will be met by her brother, Mr. Wirt Randall, of West River, Md., who will take place on April 22."

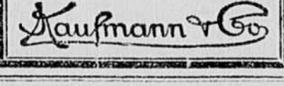

Many distinguished guests will be present at the wedding next month which will take place at 10 o'clock at St. Ann's Protestant Episcopal Church, Annapolis. Miss Augusta Burwell, of Baltimore, a cousin of the bride, will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Katharine Brune Randall, of Baltimore; Miss Helen Parker, of Col. Miss Flora Duval, of Annapolis; Miss Juliet Talcott, of Richmond. The best man will be the groom's brother, Robert L. Burwell, of Baltimore, and the ushers will include James Cheston and Forster Colburn, of Philadelphia; E. W. Magruder, D. C. Hardy, and Ridgely E. Melvin, of Annapolis; and Joseph A. W. Iglehart, of Baltimore. Both Miss Randall and Mr. Burwell belong to prominent Maryland families. Miss Randall is a daughter of the late John Wirt Randall and Mrs. Randall, of Annapolis, and a niece of Mrs. T. Barton Brune, Blanchard Randall and W. W. Randall, of Baltimore. Mr. Burwell is the son of the late Elliott Hall Burwell and Mrs. Burwell, of West River, Md.

Dances at the Westmoreland Club. There will be music and dancing on the roof garden of the Westmoreland Club on Saturday, March 21, March 22 and April 4 from 10 to 11:30 o'clock. On Monday evening, April 13, there will be a dinner-dance in the main dining-room and supper in the club from 7:30 to 12. These affairs are to be brilliant and delightful social events, and all members of the club, their families and guests are invited. Mr. Neely's Lectures. F. Teningson Neely will give two lectures on "Mexico" to-day for the benefit of the Open-Air School. At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Neely will speak at the John Marshall High School, and at 8:30 this evening at the auditorium of the Jefferson Hotel. These lectures are given under the patronage of the Chamber of Commerce, and large audiences will be present at each address.

In and Out of Town. Mrs. James L. Pritchett, of Danville, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Drake, at 1200 Floyd Avenue. Miss Myrtle James has returned to Richmond, after a visit to Washington. Mrs. Charles Donnelly and Mrs. P. B. Porter, of Louisa, are at the Johnston-Willis Hospital here. Miss Rae Van Vort, who recently

Hosiery Specials

EVERY WOMAN needs to look with care into the details of her spring attire. Let her not overlook our hosiery specials. $1.00 Pure Silk Hosiery, with hila heel and toe; deep garter tops; a hose for service. 79c Special. A novelty Salt and Pepper Mixture of Pure Silk; suitable for any costume; reinforced heel and toe. Sp. $1.69

The drawing-room and library were decorated in pink flowers and palms, and a color scheme of green and white was carried out in the dining-room, which was laid out with a centerpiece of lilies and Brill roses. Mrs. Coffman, who received with her mother, the groom's mother, a handsome gown of black lace trimmed in cut jet. Mr. and Mrs. Epps left later in the evening for a wedding trip that will include a tour of the Northern cities and Canada. After a week's visit to the bride's home at Grove Avenue, in this city, some of the guests from a distance attending the wedding last night were Mrs. M. R. Sutherland, of Richmond; Mrs. Mary Wasschoff, of Buena Vista; Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Sutherland, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brock, of Staunton; Mrs. N. M. Epps, Miss Sallie Epps, of Blackstone; Miss Geraldine Wallace, of Blackstone; Mrs. M. G. Wallace, of Blackstone; and Mrs. H. T. Christian, of Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Cowherd, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jones, of Roanoke, and many others.

The bride is a granddaughter on her maternal side of Magdalen McDowell, who was the granddaughter of Colonel Samuel McDowell, of Revolutionary fame. She married Major John Coffman, C. S. A., who lost his life in the battle of the Wilderness. Mrs. Epps is also descended from the Riddle, Vanables, Moores and Prestons, of Virginia, on her maternal side. She is related to the Dutch Van Pelt family, as well as the French and Thomas families of Maryland. She is a niece of Mrs. Henry T. Christian, of this city. Mr. Epps is a cousin of T. E. Jones, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Gordon Weyburn, whose marriage was an important event of last week, are now visiting the parents of the groom for several weeks in Atlanta, Ga. They will return to Virginia, where they will make their residence at the twenty-ninth Street, Newport News. Mrs. Weyburn was formerly Miss Gay Ola Austin, daughter of J. W. Austin, of Williamsburg, and has frequently visited relatives and friends in this city. The groom is a graduate of the University of Chicago, at one time made his home in this city.

The March bridge tournament at the Woman's Club will be held in the club parlors this evening at 8:15 o'clock with such high bridge players as usual rules concerning the registering of tables and gentlemen partners will be observed.

Fashionable society is looking forward with the greatest interest and enthusiasm to the first of a series of "dancantes" to be given by Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel. It will be a charming affair in every respect. Mrs. J. C. Montague, president of the chapter, and the committees of prominent society women working with her, have announced that the entertainment will be one of the most novel and unique events given for charity here in many months. There is to be a big silver cup for the best dancer in the contest, and ribbons for other awards. Mrs. W. W. White and Miss French Patton will give some exhibition dances as well.

Back from Washington. Mrs. Sidney J. Dunsley and Miss Margaret Atkinson Dudley have returned from Washington, where they spent the early part of the week. Mrs. Dudley attended a meeting of the United States Congress at the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, of which Mrs. Champ Clark is chairman, during her stay in Washington.

Of Interest in Richmond. Says the Baltimore News: "Mrs. William Lowndes gave her residence in Roland Park in honor of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Wirt Randall, of Annapolis, who will arrive in Elliott Hall, Baltimore, on Friday, March 20, at 10 o'clock. She will be met by her brother, Mr. Wirt Randall, of West River, Md., who will take place on April 22."

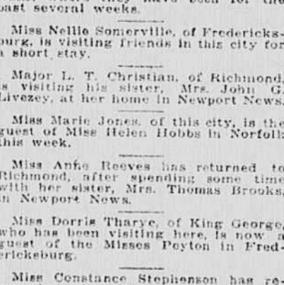

Many distinguished guests will be present at the wedding next month which will take place at 10 o'clock at St. Ann's Protestant Episcopal Church, Annapolis. Miss Augusta Burwell, of Baltimore, a cousin of the bride, will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Katharine Brune Randall, of Baltimore; Miss Helen Parker, of Col. Miss Flora Duval, of Annapolis; Miss Juliet Talcott, of Richmond. The best man will be the groom's brother, Robert L. Burwell, of Baltimore, and the ushers will include James Cheston and Forster Colburn, of Philadelphia; E. W. Magruder, D. C. Hardy, and Ridgely E. Melvin, of Annapolis; and Joseph A. W. Iglehart, of Baltimore. Both Miss Randall and Mr. Burwell belong to prominent Maryland families. Miss Randall is a daughter of the late John Wirt Randall and Mrs. Randall, of Annapolis, and a niece of Mrs. T. Barton Brune, Blanchard Randall and W. W. Randall, of Baltimore. Mr. Burwell is the son of the late Elliott Hall Burwell and Mrs. Burwell, of West River, Md.

Dances at the Westmoreland Club. There will be music and dancing on the roof garden of the Westmoreland Club on Saturday, March 21, March 22 and April 4 from 10 to 11:30 o'clock. On Monday evening, April 13, there will be a dinner-dance in the main dining-room and supper in the club from 7:30 to 12. These affairs are to be brilliant and delightful social events, and all members of the club, their families and guests are invited. Mr. Neely's Lectures. F. Teningson Neely will give two lectures on "Mexico" to-day for the benefit of the Open-Air School. At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Neely will speak at the John Marshall High School, and at 8:30 this evening at the auditorium of the Jefferson Hotel. These lectures are given under the patronage of the Chamber of Commerce, and large audiences will be present at each address.

In and Out of Town. Mrs. James L. Pritchett, of Danville, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Drake, at 1200 Floyd Avenue. Miss Myrtle James has returned to Richmond, after a visit to Washington. Mrs. Charles Donnelly and Mrs. P. B. Porter, of Louisa, are at the Johnston-Willis Hospital here. Miss Rae Van Vort, who recently received her degree at the Columbia University, in New York, has returned to the city. Mr. and Mrs. Corydon Sutton and Miss Sallie Sutton are sailing for Italy on April 2. Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Valentine returned Wednesday evening from a stay of several weeks at the Pine Forest Inn, Summerville, S. C. Miss Evelyn Gordon, who has been visiting Mrs. William Roane Aylett in Newport News, has returned to Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Millhaer, of West Franklin Street, are in New York City. Stanley Garner, of Newport News, is spending a few days with friends in Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. J. Alston Cabell have returned from a visit to New York. Miss Spence Laughman, of New York City, is visiting her uncle, J. F. Gibboney, at 1419 Park Avenue. Miss Cora Vaughn, of Franklin, is the guest of Miss Lucille Muesey, on West George Street. Mrs. F. O. Bertrand and Miss Austin Bertrand have returned from New Orleans, where they have been for the past several weeks. Miss Nellie Somerville, of Fredericksburg, is visiting friends in this city for a short stay. Major L. T. Christian, of Richmond, is visiting his sister, Mrs. John G. Livezey, at her home in Newport News. Miss Marie Jones, of this city, is the guest of Miss Helen Hobbs in Norfolk this week. Miss Anna Reeves has returned to Richmond, after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Brooks, in Newport News. Miss Dorris Thayer, of King George, who has been visiting here, is now a guest of the Misses Peyton in Fredericksburg. Miss Constance Stepienkoski has returned to Richmond, where she will spend the spring and summer season.

Prescribed by doctors for the past 19 years.

Resinol will stop that itch. THE moment that Resinol Ointment touches itching skin, the itching stops and healing begins. That is why doctors have prescribed it successfully for nineteen years in even the severest cases of eczema, tetter, ringworm, rashes and other tormenting, unsightly skin eruptions. Aided by warm baths with Resinol Soap, Resinol Ointment restores the skin or scalp to perfect health and comfort, quickly, easily and at little cost. Resinol is also an excellent household remedy wherever a soothing application is needed. It contains nothing of a harsh or injurious nature and can be used on the tenderest or most irritated surface. Practically every drug-gist sells Resinol Ointment (50c and $1), and Resinol Soap (25c). For mail orders write to Dept. 43-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Avoid "substitutes" for genuine Resinol.

Murray's 317 East Broad. HERE'S A BIG BARGAIN FOR YOU Sample Suits ACTUAL VALUE $25 AND $30. SPECIAL SATURDAY $15 ALTERATIONS FREE.

THE REINACH CO., Inc. 107 E. BROAD STREET. MILLINERY—Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel. HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges AT PETTIT & CO.'S? Country Butterbeans, lb. 80c 2 cans Virginia Herring Roe for... 25c Early June Peas, can... 10c Good 4-String Droom... 20c

S. Ullman's Son 1520-1522 East Main Street, 506 E. Marshall Street. DRINK FONTICELLO MINERAL WATER ASK YOUR DOCTOR

The Kids Simply Must Have It. ATMOR The Different Bread

THALHIDERS Good Bedding Values for Friday's Selling. 72x90 Size Flat Seam Sheet, made of good, durable cotton; for Friday's sale... 40c. 84x90 Size Linen Finish Hem-attached Sheets this grade should sell for $1.00; for Friday's sale... 69c. 100x90 Size Fine Grade Sheets for Friday's sale... 75c. 42x72 Size Rubber Lines, made of good, long-wearing kind; for Friday's sale... 25c. 42x54x10 Size Pillow Cases, made of good, long-wearing kind; for Friday's sale... 12 1/2c. 42x36 Size Hemstitched and Plain Pillow Cases, made of good quality cotton and a good value; for Friday's sale... 17c. 42x45x10 Size Hemstitched and Embroidered Pillow Cases, that should sell for $2.00; for Friday's sale... 25c.

Woman Who Killed Figaro's Editor

MME. HENRIETTE CAILLAUX.

Paris, March 19.—French public opinion continues to be deeply occupied with the Calmette tragedy, and the resultant political agitation, although interest was less outwardly manifested to-day. A few excited students in Paris and Versailles attempted demonstrations against M. Caillaux, but the police had no difficulty in dispersing them. The principal development of the day was the resignation of Ernest Monis from the Ministry of Marine, and it now is understood his withdrawal from the Cabinet will be permanent, whatever the finding of the investigating committee. While some kind of a demonstration by the anti-Republicans is certain to be attempted at the funeral of M. Calmette to-morrow, the police authorities do not anticipate serious trouble. Nevertheless, M. Henrich, who is Prefect of Paris, has made extensive preparations to preserve order. M. Calmette occupied a cell, again was an object of interest to-day to many hundreds of persons who watched those who passed within the doors. Mme. Caillaux, it is said, is showing the effects of her imprisonment. Her young daughter by an earlier marriage, Juliette Caillaux, visits her daily. Her husband and her attorney, M. Labori, called on her this afternoon and found her depressed and nervous. She discussed her case with M. Labori in preparation for her first appearance before the examining magistrates next week. M. Labori informed Mme. Caillaux, it is said, that she had no alternative but

News of Petersburg

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Hollingbrook Street, (Phone, 1485). Petersburg, Va., March 19, 1914. Information has been received of the death yesterday at the Church Home in Baltimore of Miss Kate Todd, a native and for many years a resident of Petersburg. The funeral services were held in Baltimore, and the body will be brought to this city to-morrow morning for burial in Blandford Cemetery. Miss Todd for many years had made her home with relatives in Baltimore, and latterly, as the result of an accident, had been an invalid. She is well remembered by the elder citizens of Petersburg as a woman of true nobility of character, of an unusually high order of mind, as a Christian devoted to good works and of unostentatious charity. Her happiness was found in contributing to the happiness of others. Mrs. Mildred Cobb Dunlop, widow of the deceased, died last night at her home in Henderson, N. C. The body will be brought to Petersburg via the Seaboard Air Line to-morrow afternoon for burial by the side of her husband in Blandford Cemetery.

Alleged Child Murder. Waverly Taylor and his wife, negro residents of Dinwiddie County, are under arrest and in jail on the charge of murdering a three-year-old boy child. The body of the child was found in Hatcher's Run yesterday with his skull crushed. It had been in the water since Monday of last week, when, it is alleged, the murder was committed. The woman charges the father with having killed the boy, and confesses that she threw the body in the run; but he denies it. The child is reported to have been afflicted.

League Officers Elected. At the meeting of the Crater League of Prince George County yesterday, the following officers were elected for the year: president, Miss Belle Webb, vice-president, Rev. Joseph Graham, secretary, Mrs. Alexander, treasurer, Mrs. Wheelhouse. This is the third year of the league's organization, and its record is that of having done much towards the improvement of conditions in the city.

Quiet Home Marriage. Last evening at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reese, relatives of the bride, on South Sycamore Street, Miss Mary Page Allgood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Allgood, formerly of this city, was quietly married to Peterson D. Clarke, of Dinwiddie County. The Rev. E. D. Dandridge performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends. The wedding was a pretty home event.

In the Hustings Court. In the Hustings Court to-day the grand jury returned several indictments for felony. Jesse Pearl, colored, was convicted of felonious cutting and wounding, and was given a sentence of eighteen months in the penitentiary. Fred Gee, colored, indicted for house-breaking, was discharged. Other cases of minor interest were day adjourned.

Past Chancellor B. A. Ruffin, of the Virginia Order of Knights of Pythias, visited Naomi Lodge to-night, accompanied by one or more representatives from Richmond. The Circuit Court of Dinwiddie was engaged to-day in the trial of a negro charged with murder, alleged to have been committed some time ago during a dance at or near DeWitt. Mamie L. Carter, wife of W. M. Carter, colored, who is confined in jail awaiting trial on the charge of the murder of H. H. Cox, colored, in November last, was to-day adjudged a lunatic by a commission held at the city jail, and was committed to the Central State Hospital. The woman lives on the same premises, on High Street, where Cox was shot and killed. Manager Heine Busch, while declin-

CALMETTE TRAGEDY STILL STIRS FRANCE. Principal Development Is Resignation of Monis From Ministry of Marine. HIS RETIREMENT PERMANENT. Police Prepared to Preserve Order at Funeral of Dead Editor To-Day.

Paris, March 19.—French public opinion continues to be deeply occupied with the Calmette tragedy, and the resultant political agitation, although interest was less outwardly manifested to-day. A few excited students in Paris and Versailles attempted demonstrations against M. Caillaux, but the police had no difficulty in dispersing them. The principal development of the day was the resignation of Ernest Monis from the Ministry of Marine, and it now is understood his withdrawal from the Cabinet will be permanent, whatever the finding of the investigating committee. While some kind of a demonstration by the anti-Republicans is certain to be attempted at the funeral of M. Calmette to-morrow, the police authorities do not anticipate serious trouble. Nevertheless, M. Henrich, who is Prefect of Paris, has made extensive preparations to preserve order. M. Calmette occupied a cell, again was an object of interest to-day to many hundreds of persons who watched those who passed within the doors. Mme. Caillaux, it is said, is showing the effects of her imprisonment. Her young daughter by an earlier marriage, Juliette Caillaux, visits her daily. Her husband and her attorney, M. Labori, called on her this afternoon and found her depressed and nervous. She discussed her case with M. Labori in preparation for her first appearance before the examining magistrates next week. M. Labori informed Mme. Caillaux, it is said, that she had no alternative but

J.B. Mosby & Co. Just for Friday $19.75 to $39.50 COATS $5.98 FRIDAY ONLY.

A merely nominal price for a broken assortment of full and three-quarter length Coats, in light colors, plaids and mixtures. $2 Linen Pillow Cases, $1.50 pr. Made of very fine linen, all pure flax. Spoke hemstitched, 45x36 inches. We have never offered a better value in Linen Pillow Cases at this price. $2 Ripple Dimity Bed Spreads, $1.19 2 1/2 x 2 1/2 yards, for double beds; very light in weight and easily laundered. We are noted, you know, for our extraordinary value in bed-

$1.50 and $1.75 Dress Goods, 98c yd. Gray Mixed Suitings, 54 inches wide; all spring shades. It means dress material at a little over half price. $1.50 Striped Chiffon Taffeta, 98c yd. Beautiful Silks, in amethyst, green, Copenhagen, navy, black and white grounds, with neat stripes; a big special in a much wanted silk for spring.

Violets Special Friday and Saturday 300 Violets and One Gardenia, $2.00 HAMMOND The South's Greatest Florist - 109 E. Broad.

Have You Tried a "Luncheonette" Quick - Appetizing and Inexpensive. Another Shepherd Triumph! Soups, Sandwiches, Salads, Pastries, Hot Drinks and Soda Fountain Drinks, Ice Cream. Let our chef bake your cake to order. Shepherd's Gaudies! No others are so FRESH 40 & 60¢ lb. 2 lbs or more postpaid. 409 E. BROAD.